

COUNTY OF GRANDE PRAIRIE No. 1

News Release – For Immediate Release Friday, October 18, 2013

Watch Elections Results on County Website

On Election Day, residents will be able to follow election results as polls close and votes come in on the County's live feed Unofficial Elections results page.

"Our goal for this new, easily accessible tool is to keep our residents informed as elections results come in," says Bill Rogan, County CAO.

The Unofficial Elections Results page will be found at www.countygp.ab.ca/elections. The page automatically refreshes as new votes are received and counted.

"County administration has set up several polling stations in seven of the nine divisions in the County where people can cast their votes," says Bill Rogan, County CAO. "We hope that our ratepayers exercise their right to vote; after all, the elected candidates will be representing their division and the County as a whole in Council over the next four years."

On Monday, residents will be able to cast a ballot in the 2013 Municipal Election anytime between 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. at various polling stations throughout the County.
