County Regional Fire Service recruiting for Clairmont and Dunes stations

The County of Grande Prairie Regional Fire Service is accepting applications from NFPA-certified firefighters looking to take the next step in their career.

Part-time opportunities are available for the Clairmont and Dunes fire stations.

“Becoming a firefighter is one of the most challenging, fast-paced and rewarding professions available,” said Jason Nesbitt, Deputy Fire Chief. “County Regional Fire Service is an excellent place for recruits to build their experience and work toward full-time opportunities.”

Minimum requirements for part-time recruits are as follows:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Have a current, class 3 Alberta Driver's License with airbrake endorsement
- History of a safe driving record
- Possess a Grade 12 education
- Pass RCMP Criminal Record Check and Vulnerable Sector Check
- NFPA 1001 Level 1 and Level 2 certification (IFSAC and/or ProBoard)
- NFPA 472 Awareness and Operation certification (IFSAC and/or ProBoard)
- Recognized Emergency Medical Responder (EMR), Medical First Responder or higher
- Incident Command System 100 Certificate
- Pass a medical assessment with a County Regional Fire Service approved physician and undergo a psychological assessment with a County Regional Fire Service approved psychologist
- Aptitude for physically demanding but rewarding work
- Positive, team-oriented attitude
- A minimum commitment of 48 hours (four shifts) per month

Applications will be accepted until August 21, 2019.

Application packages as well as more information and a recruitment timeline are available at www.countygp.ab.ca/firerecruit.

Applicants seeking additional information may contact the County's Regional Fire Service at firerecruitment@countygp.ab.ca or 780-532-9727.
