County Seeks Members for Boards, Committees and Commissions

Residents have an opportunity to contribute their expertise in several areas of County operations by serving on a board, committee or commission.

Members at large are needed for upcoming terms on several boards and committees, including:

- Agricultural Service Board
- County Library Board
- Intermunicipal Subdivision and Development Appeal Board
- Joint Assessment Review Board
- County Recreation Board
- Historic Resources Committee, and
- Agriculture Appeal Committee.

Those interested can learn more and apply for one or more of the available opportunities at www.countygp.ab.ca/boards. Applications are available until September 30.

“The contributions we receive from the individuals who serve on these various bodies are invaluable,” says Reeve Leanne Beaupre. “They bring forward different perspectives from the community, and the time they invest provides Council a much greater ability to make well-rounded decisions.”

Council will make appointment from the pool of applicants in accordance with Policy B30 Public Appointment to Boards and Committees.

Boards, committees, and commissions review information, weigh alternatives, and make recommendations to Council, allowing them to make more informed decisions with an efficient decision-making process.

Some boards, committees and commissions may also fill a quasi-judicial role, which means that the committee has the authority to make decisions and judgments as provided in the Municipal Government Act.
