Order of reclamation

12(1) When the board

- (a) is of the opinion that a declaration that the land is subject to supervision under section 9 would be ineffective, or
- (b) is satisfied that in a case where land has been declared subject to supervision under section 9
 - (i) the agricultural fieldman and the Minister's representative were unable to work out a plan of proper farming practices that the owner or occupant would undertake to follow,
 - (ii) the owner or occupant has refused or neglected to follow a plan of proper farming practices so worked out,
 - (iii) the owner or occupant has failed to comply with the provisions of an agreement entered into pursuant to section 11(2), or

- (iv) notwithstanding any plan determined or agreement entered into pursuant to section 11, the results have been unsatisfactory, it may recommend in writing that the control of the land be taken from the owner and occupant and that an order of reclamation of the land be issued by the council.

(2) On receipt of a recommendation under subsection (1), the council may by bylaw or, in the case of special area, by order declare that possession and control of the land is vested in the council from the date of the bylaw or order, and by virtue of the passing of the bylaw or the making of the order

- (a) any plan determined or agreement entered into pursuant to section 11 is cancelled forthwith, and
- (b) thereafter no person is entitled to be in possession of the land or any part of it without the authority and consent of the council.

(3) After the passing of a bylaw or the making of an order under subsection (2), the council shall forthwith forward to the Registrar of Land Titles a notice in the prescribed form.

(4) The Registrar of Land Titles shall

- (a) make a memorandum of the notice on the certificate of title of the land affected by the order, and
- (b) forward notice of that memorandum by registered mail to all registered owners, caveators and mortgagees of that land at the addresses appearing on the register.

(5) The memorandum has priority over all agreements of sale, caveats, mortgages, liens, charges and encumbrances of every description whatsoever, other than taxes and irrigation charges and drainage rates.

(6) No certificate of title to the land affected shall thereafter be issued except under the Municipal Government Act and subject to the notice.

(7) From the date of the passing of a bylaw or the making of an order under subsection (2), the council may enter into possession of the land, and through their servants and agents or by agreement with the owner or occupant,

- (a) cultivate the land and sow and harvest crops on it,
- (b) destroy weeds, and
- (c) take any other steps that may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of reclaiming and rehabilitating the land, under the general supervision of the agricultural fieldman and with the advice of the board to the end that the land be reclaimed and rehabilitated and eventually restored to the possession of the person who but for the bylaw or order would be entitled to it.

(8) The council, so long as the bylaw or order under subsection (2) is in force,

- (a) may pay the expenses of rehabilitating the land, and
- (b) is entitled to the revenues derived from the land.

(9) The council may apply the revenues referred to in subsection (8)

- (a) in repayment of sums expended, and
- (b) in payment of taxes on the land, and any surplus arising during the period in which the bylaw or agreement is in force shall be paid to the person entitled to the possession of the land at the time of the passing of the bylaw or the making of the order, but not to a tenant.

(10) Instead of proceeding under subsections (7) to (9), the council may lease the land to a farm operator approved by the board for such period and on such terms as to rent and otherwise including the method of farming and reclamation of the land as may be considered by the council to be proper in the circumstances, and any money received by the council under the lease shall be applied

- (a) first to the repayment of any money expended on the land by the council, and
- (b) then to the payment of taxes on the land, and if any surplus remains at the termination of the lease, it shall be paid to the person entitled to the possession of the land at the time of the passing of the bylaw or the making of the order, but not to a tenant.

 - (ii) by sending it by registered mail to the registered owner's latest address on the assessment roll of the municipality, and

- (b) on all other persons shown on the assessment roll of the municipality to have an interest in the land
 - (i) by means of personal service, or
 - (ii) by sending it by registered mail to those persons at their latest address on file at the land titles office.

(2) A council or a board, or an employee or agent of either of them, shall not perform any work on the land pursuant to a declaration or order made or bylaw passed under section 9 or 12, as the case may be, until more than 30 days after the date that the declaration, order or bylaw has been served under subsection (1).

Right of appeal

14(1) A person affected by

- (a) a declaration made under section 9, or
- (b) an order made or bylaw passed under section 12, may, by way of an application, appeal the declaration, order or bylaw to the Court of Queen's Bench.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) may be commenced not more than 30 days after the service of the declaration, order or bylaw under section 13(1) on the person bringing the appeal.

(3) If an appeal is commenced, no employee or agent of a council or a board shall begin work on the land pursuant to the declaration, order or bylaw until a judgment confirming that declaration, order or bylaw has become final by reason of the lapse of time or of its having been confirmed by the highest court to which the appeal may be taken.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (2), if at any time during which an order or bylaw is in force a person affected by the order or bylaw has reason to believe that the land in question is not being managed by the council or the board or the employee or agent of any of them in a manner in keeping with good agricultural practice, that person may apply to the Court of Queen's Bench for an order

- (a) rescinding the order or bylaw, or
- (b) directing the council or the board to manage the land in a manner in keeping with good agricultural practice and the Court of Queen's Bench may make its order subject to any terms and conditions it sees fit.

(5) If an application is made under subsection (4), the order or bylaw remains in effect until

- (a) an order of the Court of Queen's Bench respecting the order or bylaw has become final by reason of the lapse of time or of its having been confirmed by the highest court to which the appeal may be taken, and
- (b) the crops that are growing on the land at the time the order of the Court of Queen's Bench becomes final have been harvested.

(6) If

- (a) an application for an order of the Court of Queen's Bench is made under subsection (4), and
- (b) work has been performed on the land pursuant to the order or bylaw, the cost of that work shall be borne by the person commencing the application and if that person is the registered owner of the land or is the person who is in possession or occupation of the land, the amount of those costs remaining unpaid shall be added to the tax roll for the land.

Rescinding bylaw

15(1) When in the opinion of the board the land has been rehabilitated and reclaimed sufficiently to justify its return to the person who but for the bylaw or order mentioned in section 12(2) would be entitled to it, the council, on the recommendation of the board,

- (b) shall forthwith forward to the proper Registrar of Land Titles a notice in the prescribed form.

(2) The Registrar of Land Titles shall

- (a) cancel the memorandum previously noted on the certificate of title insofar as it affects the land described in the notice, and
- (b) forward notice of the cancellation by registered mail to all registered owners, caveators and mortgagees of the land at their addresses appearing on the register.

(3) If an order made or bylaw passed under section 12(2) is not rescinded under subsection (1), it shall lapse on the January 1 following 3 full crop years after the date on which

- (a) the order was made or the bylaw passed, or
- (b) the order or bylaw was confirmed by the highest court to which an appeal was taken,
